Madras.

Sir,

(J)

In persuance of instructions issued in para 2 of G.O.No.2681, P.H., dated 14-10-1935, one of the posts of the second class Vaccinator which fell vacant on account of the death of the permanent incumbent was converted into that of first class with effect from 19-12-1937. The new post was filled in by a second class vaccinator who possessed the qualifications prescribed for the first class Vaccinator.

2. As the conversion of the post has effected the strength of the staff consisting of three first class and sixteen second class vaccinators fixed by Government for this District in their orders quoted above, I request that in modification of their previous orders, :- Government may be pleased to sanction the alterations in the strength of first and second class Vaccinators viz: 4 first class and 15 second class Vaccinators.

36334
